Stanhope's Fine Wine Collection

Barolo DOCG Ravera 2016—Italy 225

In 1980, Barolo was one of the first Italian wine regions to attain DOCG classification—the highest possible in Italy. Aged for 24 months in oak barrels with subsequent bottling in August, a standout Barolo 2016 vintage is among the greatest vintages of recent decades, potentially the finest vintage ever in Piedmont's "Golden Age." The tannin and acidity of Barolo pairs best with flavorful NY steaks & lamb chops from our menu.

Master Piero Shiraz 2015—Australia 285

Lou Miranda Estate is dedicating this limited-edition wine to the future generations, with only 5600 handcrafted bottles made with 25-year-old vines. This wine was beautifully matured in temperature-controlled oak and barrel selection ensures the best possibly quality for this single vineyard wine. It pairs with all the red meat and poultry from our menu.

Cohiba Atmosphere Reserva 2011—Spain 210

An outstanding Tempranillo, a full body rich wine, smooth finish with flavors of red berries and light oak, carries good acidity. This vintage rates better than any other year. With a limited batch of production this wine falls under collectible series and pairs well with all the red meat and poultry from our menu.
